Gertrude S. Hornung, Supervisor of Special Activities at The Cleveland Museum of Art, will offer a course in CONTEMPORARY ART at the Museum this month. Beginning April 11, the talks will be given for five Fridays from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon in the galleries of the Museum's 19th and 20th century collections. It is particularly planned as an introduction to modern art and as background for further enjoyment of the May Show.

Mrs. Hornung lives at 2240 Elandon Drive with her husband Robert M. and her daughter Elizabeth who is presently a student at Wellesley College. In addition to her long association with the Museum, Mrs. Hornung is active in the Junior League, Council on World Affairs and the League of Women Voters. She founded and served as first president of the Museum's Junior Council.

Born in Boston, Mrs. Hornung received her A.B. from Wellesley College and obtained her M.A. and Ph.D. from Western Reserve University in Cleveland.
